

THE GATES ARE CLOSING

A Community Production

Reading and discussion for Selichot

Saturday, September 16th

at Temple Beth-El

Calling all actors/readers - we welcome all actors for a reading performance. If you are interested in taking a role contact Temple Beth-El at 845-454-0570 or rebvictor@tbeny.org. There will be a few read-through gatherings in late August.

The Gates Are Closing, a play by Merle Feld, takes place in a synagogue on Yom Kippur. The action follows 10 main characters spanning a wide range of ages, backgrounds, and professions as they grapple with issues of identity, meaning, repentance, and forgiveness on this most somber of days.

8:00pm Light refreshments,
Havdalah, performance, discussion.
Followed by musical Selichot Service with clergy from both synagogues.

The Selichot program and service is a collaboration between congregation Shir Chadash and Temple Beth-El. Rabbi Daniel Victor, Rabbi Miriam Hyman, Rabbi Daniel Polish and Cantor Gail Hirshenfang all participate in this annual event.

Temple Beth-El is located at 118 S. Grand Ave, Poughkeepsie 845-454-0570
